NOW affiliated coin clubs are reminded to submit their nomination for the recipient of the 1975 NOW ANA Summer Seminar Scholarship. Any member of any NOW Affiliated club is eligible.

This exciting program has been made possible through the generous funding guarantee made by Fritz Voecks of Fox Valley Coin Exchange, of Kimberly, Wisconsin.

Clubs and individuals are also reminded to submit their nomination for the 1975 WYN ANA Summer Seminar Scholarship. The WYN Scholarship is open to any Wisconsin resident between the ages of 11 to 18.

Funding for this project has been provided from the proceeds of Numismafest I, II and III. The dealers who attend Numismafest are to be thanked for their support. Donations have also been received from several coin clubs and individuals.

The recipients of these scholarships will be named during the NOW Convention in Milwaukee. Each scholarship will provide tuition and travel expense.

If more information is needed, contact the NOW Editor at once!

This will be the obverse design for the 1975 NOW Convention Medal. A slight change will be made in the lettering to insure uniform balance. This design is the work of Mr. Doug Watson, of Waupaca, Wisconsin.

Presidents Message-

Editor Krueger has given me the message...get your president's message out today or we'll have to put it out as a blank message if this issue of NOW News is to appear on schedule. Twelve years exposure to the hobby publishing field has made me a discipline of maintaining a fixed schedule, so that point alone is sufficient to get me going on this, but there is the additional consideration that my failure to do so would make it appear that my mind is a blank...be that the case or not, and I know that there be some who would make out that it probably is, I'm not about to fall into that category by default.

There are a few new facts which I can command to your attention this time around, but I do want to note that the plans for our 1975 convention at Milwaukee's Red Carpet Inn, May 17-18, are progressing rapidly under the direction of chairman A.P. (Del) Bertschy. Just recently we approved and placed into production the convention medal which will bear the NOW badger seal on one side and the design illustrated on the cover slightly revised to provide better balance, on the other side.

I would like to commend your particular attention and careful review, however, to several of the features presented in this issue. In particular, every member should carefully review the revised NOW Constitution and By-Laws as approved by the executive board at its September 22, 1974 interim meeting and printed in their entirety herein. The general membership will be asked to vote on their acceptability at the general meeting which will be held during the May convention in Milwaukee.

You will find similarly presented in this issue the regulatory guidelines under which the Wisconsin Young Numismatists will function as a NOW branch. Their full absorption into our organization will probably require some additional minor revisions in the NOW By-Laws at the Milwaukee meeting, as will the proposal for a life membership category in NOW, if a move in this direction is approved by the board at the interim board meeting which has been called for February 16 in Brookfield at Numismafest III.

Other items on the agenda for Brookfield include the selection of a convention site for 1976 and the designation of the recipient for the 1975 NOW Medal of Merit. The board will also be asked to approve a new exhibit package developed by board member Virgil Jackson in cooperation with Gerald Johnson and Leo Neidinger to replace the current presentation for which the supply is growing short.

As you will note in this issue some of the current board's early actions are already beginning to take firm root. Ken Bressett's report on activation of the NOW Speakers Bureau should be of great interest to coin clubs throughout the state and their members, as should the additional details on the 1975 NOW American Numismatic Association Summer Seminar scholarship which will be awarded to some lucky member of a member club of NOW, and the related scholarship which is being sponsored by W.Y.N. exclusively for a junior.

That should just about fulfill editor Krueger's space requirement for this issue, and I hope it proves that my mind...and that the board collectively...is not blank. If, however, you feel we're missing the boat somewhere, or out in left field somewhere else, I hope you'll take the time to share your thoughts with us and hopefully help us reach the ultimate objective of building a bigger and better NOW more quickly.....Cliff

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS TO NOW BOARD.

In accordance with Article I, Section 1 of the current NOW By-Laws, I hereby issue a call for nomination of individuals to stand election as successors to four members of the board whose terms will expire effective with the close of the 1975 annual meeting which will be held during the annual NOW show May 17-18 at Milwaukee's Expo.

Present board members whose terms expire as of that meeting are Mike Segersin, Cliff Manthe, Gordon Gill and Harold Collins. All nominations will be for three year terms expiring in 1978. Any individual who has been a member of NOW for a minimum of one year may be nominated to a board post by any other current member, and the above named governors may be nominated to succeed themselves.

The acceptance of nominations will close on March 15 (per Article I, Section 4 of the By-Laws). All nominations must be submitted to the secretary in writing:

Mrs. Betty Finner, Secretary
P.O. Box 296
Iola, Wisconsin 54945

Every member should exercise this key franchise of his membership. This is one of three times--the others are at election time and during the annual meeting--when every member can impact his influence upon the direction of the organization. Don't fail to use this challenge.

Clifford Mishler
N.O.W. President

Highsmith Breakin Attempt.....

"I think a guy is entitled to defend his home at any time, that is the way I feel about it."

Robbers would be wise to take Gale V. Highsmith at his word when he says that.

For the second time in just two years, Highsmith, 63, shot a man, Thomas R. Hosking, after he and an accomplice broke into Highsmith's house at 2825 South Burrell Street in Milwaukee.

The incident occurred on Friday January 17th. The 25 year old man was listed in critical condition at County General Hospital.

Highsmith, Vice President of Numismatists of Wisconsin, is a prominent Milwaukee collector and believes that is the reason for the burglary attempts. He doesn't keep any valuable coins at his home, however.

According to police and Highsmith, Highsmith and his wife were home about 6:45 p.m. when they heard a car outside.

Meanwhile, Highsmith had gotten his 12 gauge shotgun and loaded it with 00 size buckshot.

Highsmith told police that when the men got a few feet in the door he told them to freeze.

He said he saw something flash that he thought was a gun, saw one of the men move, and fired. The men fled.

The 25 year old man, who was wounded in the left rear shoulder, was found in the rear of a home a short distance from Highsmith's.

Police said that the shiny object Highsmith saw was apparently the 17 inch screwdriver that the men had used on the door.
